The Adult Bat Chayil Programme

Have you ever felt like an outsider because you missed out on your Bat Mitzvah? Or maybe you've had one, but didn't get much out of it? Or would like a refreshers course?

The Rebetzin will be leading Adult Bat Mitzvah classes culminating with a special Bat Mitzvah celebration for family and friends.

There will be a meeting at the Rebetzin's house, 12 Stratton Drive, on Sunday 10 September at 4 pm to present and discuss this exciting programme.

Summary Ekev

General Overview: Moses continues his pep talk to the Israelites, cautioning them not to fear the Canaanite armies for G-d will wage battle for them. He also notifies them that their entry into the Land is not due to their own virtues - Moses reminds them of their many transgressions to emphasise this point - but rather, it is in the merit of the nation's Forefathers. The commandments of prayer and Grace After Meals are mentioned. The second part of the Shema is also found in this portion.

First Aliyah: This section begins with a promise: if the Israelites observe G-d's commandments, they will be blessed in a multitude of ways, including the obliteration of their Canaanite enemies. Moses enjoins the Israelites not to fear these enemies, for G-d will miraculously deliver them into their hands. Moses instructs the Israelites to destroy all the idols and their accoutrements which they will find in Canaan. Moses then discusses their forty-year desert ordeal, and the many tests and miracles which accompanied them. Moses provides a description of many of the wonderful features of the Land of Israel, and the Israelites are commanded to bless G-d after they eat and are sated.

Second Aliyah: Moses admonishes the Israelites that the new-found fortune which will be their lot once they enter the Promised Land should not lead them to forget the One who provided them with the wealth. Such a blunder would lead to their destruction and ruin.

Third Aliyah: Moses tells the Israelites that they will inherit the Land of Israel not due to their own merits and righteousness, but because of the promise G-d made to the Patriarchs. In fact, Moses reminds them of the many times they angered G-d while in the desert, placing special emphasis on the sin of the Golden Calf, when G-d would have annihilated the Israelites if not for Moses' successful intercession on their behalf. He also makes brief reference to the other times when the Israelites rebelled against G-d.

Fourth Aliyah: Moses recounts how after the Golden Calf debacle, G-d commanded him to carve two new tablets upon which G-d engraved the Ten Commandments, to replace the first set of tablets which Moses had shattered. At that time, G-d also designated the Levites to be His holy servants, because of the devotion they demonstrated throughout the Golden Calf incident.

Fifth Aliyah: Moses charges the Israelites to love and fear G-d, and to serve Him. He expounds on G-d's greatness, and impresses on the Israelites their great fortune: that G-d has chosen them to be His treasured nation. He again reminds them of the many miracles G-d had performed on their behalf since they left Egypt.

Sixth Aliyah: Moses tells the Israelites that the land of Israel is constantly dependent upon G-d for irrigating rains, and that the land is constantly under G-d's watchful eyes. We then read the second paragraph of the Shema prayer. In this section we are admonished to observe G-d's commandments, which will cause G-d to supply bountiful rainfall and harvests. Non-observance will lead to exile. We are commanded regarding prayer, tefillin, mezuzah, and teaching Torah to our children.

Seventh Aliyah: Moses informs the Israelites that if they follow G-d's ways and cleave to Him, they will easily

Haftorah Isaiah 49:14 - 51:3

This week's haftorah is the second of a series of seven "haftorot of Consolation." These seven haftorot commence on the Shabbat following Tisha b'Av and continue until Rosh Hashanah.

The exiled Jewish people express their concern that G-d has abandoned them. G-d reassures them that it is not so, comparing His love and mercy for His people to that of a mother for her children, and even greater than that, too. The prophet Isaiah then touchingly describes the ingathering of the exiles which will occur with the Messiah's arrival and returning to the initial subject matter of this haftorah, that of the Jewish people's complaint of being abandoned by G-d, he reminds them of their rebellious behaviour that brought about the exile and suffering. He concludes with encouraging words, reminding us of what had happened to our ancestors, Abraham and Sarah. Just as they were blessed with a child when they had all but given up hope, so too, G-d will send us the Messiah

Pirkei Avot 5

There were ten generations from Adam to Noah. This is to teach us the extent of G-d's tolerance; for all these generations angered Him, until He brought upon them the waters of the Flood.

Ethics of our Father 5

A politician thinks of the next election. A statesman, of the next generation.

James Freeman Clarke

Each new generation is reared by its predecessor; the latter must therefore improve in order to improve its successor. The movement is circular.
