Parshat Breishit Summary

G-d creates the world in six days. On the first day He makes darkness and light. On the second day He forms the heavens, dividing the "upper waters" from the "lower waters." On the third day He sets the boundaries of land and sea, and calls forth trees and greenery from the earth. On the fourth day He fixes the position of the sun, moon and stars as timekeepers and illuminators of the earth. Fish, birds and reptiles are created on the fifth day; land animals, and then the human being, on the sixth. G-d ceases work on the seventh day, and sanctifies it as a day of rest.

G-d forms the human body from the dust of the earth, and blows into his nostrils a "living soul." Originally Man is a single person, but deciding that "it is not good that man be alone," G-d takes a "side" from the man, forms it into a woman, and marries them to each other.

Adam and Eve are placed in the Garden of Eden, and commanded not to eat from the "Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil." The serpent persuades Eve to violate the command, and she shares the forbidden fruit with her husband. Because of their sin, it is decreed that man will experience death, returning to the soil from which he was formed, and that all gain will come only through struggle and hardship. Man is banished from the Garden.

Eve gives birth to two sons, Cain and Abel. Cain quarrels with Abel and murders him, and becomes a rootless wanderer. A third son, Seth, is born to Adam; Seth's eighth-generation descendant, Noah, is the only righteous man in a corrupt world.

Haftarah Isaiah 42:5-21.

The haftarah of this week's reading opens with a statement by "the Almighty G-d, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who laid out the earth and made grow from it." This echoes the Torah portion's recounting of the creation of the world in six days.

G-d speaks to the prophet Isaiah, reminding him of his life's purpose and duty, namely that of arousing the Jewish people to return to being a light unto the nations, "To open blind eyes, to bring prisoners out of a dungeon; those who sit in darkness out of a prison."

The prophecy continues with a discussion regarding the Final Redemption, and the song that all of creation will sing to G-d on that day. G-d promises to punish all the nations that have persecuted Israel while they were exiled. The prophet also rebukes Israel for their errant ways, but assures them that they will return to the correct path and will be redeemed.

The Adult Bat Chayil Programme

Have you ever felt like an outsider because you missed out on your Bat Mitzvah? Or maybe you've had one, but didn't get much out of it?

Or would you like a refreshers course?

The Rebetzin will be leading Adult Bat Mitzvah classes culminating with a special Bat Mitzvah celebration for family and friends. For more information contact the Rebetzin.

The 1st class will take place on Sunday 5th November at 8 pm at the Rabbis house and the 2nd class on Tuesday 28th November at 1 pm at the Beit Midrash after Mincha.

Kiddush Helpers

We are looking for new volunteers to join the Kiddush rota. You will be required 3-4 times a year on Shabbat morning between 10.30 am and 11.15 am to help set up the Kiddush (and get a head start and do a quality check tasting). All are eligible to join, adult or teen. For more information contact the Shul office.
